

CLARK CEMETERY

The Clark Cemetery is located on East Hill above Town Road #59 on the farm originally settled by Theophilus Clark in 1792. In 1801 the town voted to have their agent take a deed of one half acre of land for a burying ground and see to fencing it. In 1973 it was in fair condition; in 1993 in deplorable condition. A trailer is parked within ten feet of the south-east line and only half the stones found in 1973 could be located. The place obviously has missed the care that Raymond Clark gave it in his lifetime. Zoning laws now would prevent any building so close to town property.

CUTLER CEMETERY

The Cutler Cemetery is located just below the junction of State Aid Highways 1 and 3, the County and Center Roads, at the town line dividing Montpelier City and East Montpelier. This is a sizable, well kept cemetery with only a few unmarked graves. The selectmen finally completed their dickering for the land after the death of Nathaniel Cutler. Mrs. Lucy Cutler gave them the land without expense, as much as the town needed.

The lov'd on earth are lov'd in heaven

Resigned to God's most holy will

Thou hast obey'd his summons hence

For he had need that thou should'st go

Where streams of joy forever flow

And will rejoice though sad bereft

That thou so calmly welcomed death

If we could think how short the time,
 Before we'll meet them there
 We would not sit and mourn for them
 But would ourselves prepare
 And when we all are gathered there
 Ther'll be none left to mourn
 No one to sit and weep for us
 Because we can't return

Elmira wife of Cyrus Wheeler Died Nov 19 1884 ae 78 y's
 Dearest mother thou has left us
 We for you no pains did spare
 But it has pleased God to take thee
 Far from sickness pain and care
 Dearest Mother, thous art sweetly sleeping
 And thy soul is now at rest

If we Are faithful to the end
 We'll meet thee with the blest

DILLON FARM BURIALS

In 1858 the Dillons owned two places in the Horn of the Moon section of the town. The W. Dillon farm was at the end of Town road 33 and the R. Dillon farm on Town road 18. The three stones were recently in the barn of the R. Dillon farm-the old Gladding farm.
